

Help Us Help People
— And Get Paid!

WHO WE ARE:

Take Charge America is a nonprofit financial education and credit counseling agency. We have helped nearly 2 million people nationwide transform their financial futures with one-on-one guidance to pay off debts, regain financial independence and save for the future.

Take Charge America (TCA) is partnering with Take Charge America Institute (TCAI) and the University of Arizona (U of A) to further our relationship and help impact students through this unique opportunity. This is our first time extending a part time option for counselors and working directly with U of A to do so. TCA is excited to gauge the interest of the students and explore the benefits of this program.

WHY WE NEED YOU:

We are hiring Part-Time Credit Counselors who are students at the U of A, and will talk with clients about their financial situation and challenges to help them figure out their options for getting out of debt. We offer a comprehensive, paid training program. By the time you begin taking calls, you'll be well-prepared to help clients find solutions.

WHAT MAKES A GREAT CREDIT COUNSELOR?

You will enjoy a phone-based/customer service role, that focuses on financial services

You know how to get people talking and listen patiently

You like to help people solve problems
